A Message from the manager

Doug Bauer

As the spring winds blow, having the ability to hit the ball down with a lower piercing flight can make the difference between a good day and a great day. Here are a couple simple recommendations that hopefully help with accomplishing this:
1. Put the ball back in your stance.
 2. Abbreviate your backswing.
 3. Abbreviate your follow through.
4. Don't hesitate to take one or two more clubs and don't overswing.

Next time the wind is howling at Ironhorse be sure and try these simple tips to navigate the gusty winds!!
Good Golfing,
Doug
